G. E. WATERMAN.

It affords the Commercial pleasure in reviewing the business interests of the city to note the growing popularity and increasing trade of the photographic studio of Mr. G. E. Waterman which is known and appreciated as one of the best conducted studios in the county. The excellence of the work turned out here is evidence of this. One cannot but admire the artistic finish and the elegant appearance of all branches of work displayed at this studio from the ordinary cabinet to the large and beautiful life-sized portraits in bromide, crayon, India Ink, etc. To be appreciated they must be examined. The studio is magnificently equipped. The operating room is supplied with all the modern appliances, fine scenery, etc.

Mr. Waterman is a photographer of more than ordinary ability and has a large patronage.
